UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1948

No. 8

CURTAIN GOING UP—The University of Hawaii Theatre Guild comes before the footlights tonight in its premiere performance of the current academic year—Oscar Wilde's hilarious "The Importance of Being Earnest." In the first act, theatre-goers will see Gwendolen Fairfax (Paula Simpson, seated) exchange Wilde witticisms with John Worthing J. P. (Louis Steed). ## Oscar Wilde Comedy Opens Six-Day Engagement Tonight

By HELEN KIMURA
Ka Leo Staff Reporter

Tonight at 8:15 in Farrington hall, the local premiere performance of Oscar Wilde's "The Importance of Being Earnest," will be presented, opening the 1948-49 UH Theatre Guild Season.

The satirical English playwright's 19th century drawing-room comedy mocking the snobbery of British society of the Victorian period, promises to be well-received. It has its quota of sparkling wit, which adds to the air of sophisticated humor.

IN THE ROLE of conservative John Worthing will be Louis Steed, veteran of the footlights. Last season he played leading parts in "The Swan," "The Beggar's Opera" and "Hay Fever."

Bruce H. White Jr. is cast as Algernon Moncrieff, the debonair man about-town.

THE PART of the prim and proper Victorian lady, Gwendolen Fairfax who loves Earnest for his name's sake, will be enacted by Paula Simpson.

The other feminine lead will be portrayed by Dorothy Billam-Walker, who plays the role of sweet and seemingly innocent Cecily Cardew.

"THE IMPORTANCE of Being Earnest," directed by Dr. Joel Trapido, is also scheduled to run tomorrow night and continue from Oct. 27 through 30. Publicity chairman Stanley Yamamoto announced that students should present ASUH activity cards along with TG tickets at the door.

BOG Presents Tentative Space Recommendations

Definite headway was made on the Hemenway hall allocation issue when the 14 members of the BOG met Monday noon to draw up a tentative plan for allotting space.

Tabulating all the requests sent from numerous university community organizations, the board began to make preliminary assignments for the 11 rooms, which come under BOG jurisdiction.

UPON COMPLETION of the tentative assignments, the board will negotiate with the various organizations to reach compromises. Permanent space allocations will then be made, awaiting only the seal of approval of the Board of Regents.

One recommendation proposed that the Women's Campus club and the Men's faculty club compromise and partition the former WCC club room, adjoining the Alumni lounge and which was used last year for Carnegie music concerts.

THE CORNER area now used by the Men's Faculty club was suggested as a possible site for the ASUH office.

Under another plan, the present ASUH office was tentatively sectioned in three parts. The alumni and the board of debate and forensics were assigned one portion, with the suggestion that they schedule specific hours to avoid conflict.

THE BOOKSTORE will take over See 'PLAN MAY SOLVE' Page 4, Col. 4

'CLASS' CONFLICT SETTLED

Second Semester Students Eligible For Office: ASUH

By TOMI KAIZAWA
Ka Leo News Editor

Any second semester students seeking seats on the ASUH council or the class cabinets are eligible on condition that they be properly registered for their respective classes, it was ruled by the ASUH councilmen at a recent meeting held at Hemenway hall.

GOP, Demo Candidates To Appear At UH

Democratic and Republican candidates seeking Territorial and city-county offices will speak at separate rallies in front of Hemenway hall next week, it was announced by Alvin Shim, chairman of the program.

GOP ASPIRANTS are scheduled to speak Thursday, Oct. 28, and the Democrats the following day. Speakers will be disclosed at a later date, Shim said.

The Pre-Legal club is sponsoring these political events as "an informative measure" for UH students, according to Shim.

TC Booklet On Sale

"Education Hawaii," a Teachers college club publication, is on sale for 25 cents. Copies can be obtained from any TC member.

New UH Party System Gets Big Test Today

Frosh, AWS Hopefuls Up For Election; Voting Booths Will Close At 3 P. M.

The newly inaugurated UH "party system" will be given its first test when students go to the polls to elect Freshman class officers and councilmen, AWS secretary and councilors.

Voting booths, which opened at 9 a.m. will remain open until 3 p.m., on the first floor of the new wing in Hemenway hall.

Contrary to the announcement made in the last issue of Ka Leo, there will be no booth set up in the TC building.

Freshmen councilmen candidates are Danforth Chun, Harry O. Kim, Lucille Conjugacion, Richard Tongg, Jr., Stanley Toyama, Emil S. Hugo, and Richard Noda.

PRESIDENTIAL candidate Donald Fujimoto and vice presidential nominee David E. Scoble are heading the ticket of the "52" party.

ROBERT D. KING and James Westlake lead the Freshman Political party as presidential and vice presidential candidates, respectively.

IN ORDER TO vote in the freshman election, which is held jointly with the election of the AWS secretary and AWS councilors, students must bring their ASUH membership cards, stated President Warren Higa.

Although only first year students may vote for Freshman class officers, the student body-at-large are eligible to vote for ASUH councilmen.

STUDENTS ARE reminded that under the single transferable vote their ballots will be void if they are marked with Xs.

Instead of "X-ing" blocks after the candidate's names, voters must place the numbers 1, 2, 3, etc., in the order of their preferences for students running for the same office. A new ballot may be obtained from the election officials if one is ruined.

UH Honors Navy Day Oct. 27; Convocation Set For Amphitheatre

In commemoration of Navy Day, the first convocation of the school year will be held in the Arthur L. Andrews amphitheatre at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday, Oct. 27, Dr. Joel Trapido, chairman of program and convocations committee announced.

The navy will supply speakers for the program. The UH band, under the direction of Mr. Ernest McLain, will play during interludes.

CADETS OF the university ROTC regiment will make their first public appearance of the year when they march in formation into the amphitheatre before the program begins.

All classes will be dismissed and the library closed during the convocation hour.

Esposito To Discuss 'War Crimes Trial'

"War Crimes Trial in Japan" will be discussed by O. Vincent Esposito, democratic candidate for house of representatives from the fourth district, tomorrow in Hemenway hall at 12:30 p.m., according to Hung Chee Tom, YMCA forum chairman.

Mr. Esposito is a graduate of UH and of the Harvard law school, and was formerly associated with the allied occupation government in Japan as an attorney.

Pick Up ASUH Cards

Students who have not yet received ASUH activity cards, are asked to pick them up before Monday, Oct. 25, at the ASUH office.

FACULTY TABLES AT THE CAFETERIA

One of the "higher-ups" of the administration this week managed to talk the cafeteria management into reserving six tables in the center of the cafeteria for faculty members during the lunch hour.

This move, claims the official, "will give the faculty members an opportunity to meet with their colleagues and, at times, to accomplish some university business."

KOKUBUN

I cannot agree with the motive of this plan. Students and faculty members, too, I trust, look forward to the lunch hour as a time to forget classroom lectures, grades and exams, and talk with each other about things outside the realm of academic problems.

It has been long standing "talk" on campus that student-faculty relations outside the classrooms are aloof, impersonal and different.

Such a condition will continue to exist if the "For Faculty Only" practice is resorted to by the administration.

FORENSIC CHALLENGE

A few coeds on campus were aghast (?) early this week when they were confronted with a statement from the Hawaii Union, men's public speaking society, challenging them to a debate.

The men wanted to settle this question once and for all: "Resolved: That women's place is in the home!"

While Hideto Kono, Hawaii Union president, Barry Rubin and other leaders of the forensic club sat beaming, bigwigs in the AWS (Associated Women Students) began rounding up members for a session to act on the challenge.

Wednesday afternoon, Harriet Yamahira, AWS president, emerged from the meeting wearing a confident grin which denoted a "we'll show 'em" attitude. The AWS had accepted the Hawaii Union challenge and immediately initiated a "man-hunt" for the top women speakers on campus to out-talk the men at the debate on the delicate subject.

It should develop into quite an interesting affair. I will keep you informed on the progress of the plans, as to time, place and date of the debate.

GOODWILL AMBASSADORS

Yoshimi "Hash" Hayashi, a/s sophomore, related an interesting story to me on his return from the Mainland two weeks ago.

While traveling on a train from Los Angeles to San Bernadino with the Varsity football squad before the UH-Redlands game, "Hash" befriended a Californian and conversed with him at length on "general topics."

Before parting, the Californian asked Hayashi seriously, "Say, do all the people in Hawaii speak as good English as you?"

That's the way to put Hawaii and UH on the map, "Hash"!

Another UH'er acting as "goodwill ambassador" is Johnny Tsukano, former swimming ace, now touring Europe.

Evidence of Johnny's boosting UH and our coeds to Europeans came out in the open this week when Mercedes Hutchison, ASUH secretary, received letters from two gentlemen on the continent.

One was written by a Dane, while the other came from southern France. The latter envelope produced a snapshot of a handsome "moustachioed" Frenchman and a terrific scent of French perfume!

THE ALUMNI STUDENT AID FUND

EDITOR KA LEO:

At a meeting of the Board of Governors of the Alumni Association University of Hawaii last night (Oct. 14), I was directed to obtain publicity, through KA LEO if practicable, concerning the Alumni Student Aid Fund, which is available for loans to students needing financial assistance.

The fund is administered by the university and loans are granted upon approval of the Alumni Student Relief committee. Any student interested should apply in person at the Alumni Association office for further details.

'NOR ALL YOUR TEARS . . .

EDITOR KA LEO:

The freshmen should read this rhyme taken from the "Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam" before handing in their English themes:

"The Moving Finger writes; and having writ, Moves on: nor all your Piety or Wit Shall lure it back to cancel half a line, Nor all your Tears wash out a Word of it."

—NAME WITHHELD

REPLIES TO BELL AND SMITH

EDITOR KA LEO:

This is in reply to the Oct. 15 letter of Messrs. Bell and Smith.

1. War is not inevitable; rather, it is the logical outcome of the current practices and modes of thought among the world's citizens and their statesmen-representatives.

2. Armament programs in the past have fostered, not prevented war.

3. Might may gain victory, but it cannot prove that a cause is right.

The worth of a philosophy is a matter of value judgements which in turn are ultimately made by the individual.

4. A war may temporarily decide political disputes, but the basic philosophies behind the altercations are matters of intellectual, not physical persuasion.

5. The so-called "failure" of the UN, like the alleged failure of Christianity in modern life, neglects to note that neither has been fully nor sincerely tried to date by all concerned.

—RICHARD COLLIER

' . . . STRUMMING THEIR OWN GUITARS'

EDITOR KA LEO:

In reply to the "Barefoot Boys with Ukes," Bell and Smith, we the undersigned wish to make it known that we have both girded and girdled our loins. While under this uncomfortable strain we have observed the following:

1. If war with Russia is inevitable, why aren't the beach boys making like ostriches in the sands at Haleiwa?

2. People who can't distinguish between a chord and a discord shouldn't throw Uhus at the UN.

3. It is evident that they were merely strumming their own guitars and we too want to get on the band wagon.

As We See It . . .

Mr. Fujimoto's Dramatic Exit

In what amounted to one of the most dramatic exits seen here in a long time, Charles K. Fujimoto, recently with the University of Hawaii department of agriculture, resigned his position as a research chemist to become "full time chairman of the Communist party in Hawaii."

That Mr. Fujimoto was an avowed Communist was no secret. Besides having been named as one of the top party members in the Territory by the "Izuka pamphlet," Mr. Fujimoto's political beliefs were known to those who associated with him here.

Several pertinent questions have followed in the wake of his theatrical and widely publicized resignation:

1. Exactly why did he chose this method of "coming out into the open," when Communists in the main, especially these days, prefer to keep their identities confidential?

2. Did Mr. Fujimoto "come out" on his own volition actually, or was he ordered to do so by someone else?

3. Is Mr. Fujimoto's action indicative of a new plan of strategy soon to be followed by other American Communists?

Whatever the answers may be, we note here that Mr. Fujimoto's ability as a chemist will be sorely missed. We cannot say the same for the political ideology he took with him.

UN Not A Failure

During this United Nations Week, people in all lands have been asking themselves, "Is the UN a failure, or will it eventually be in a position to solve the world's problems through peaceful means?"

To say that the UN is a "going concern" would appear to be overly optimistic. But, on the other hand, to claim that it is a complete failure is sheer nonsense. For so long as the nations' diplomats are able and continue to "blow off" steam at each other, they are not likely to "shoot off" guns at each other.

Please Don't Pet The Dogs

Currently on campus there are two handsome Seeing-Eye dogs. These expertly trained animals have been a constant source of wonderment to all who have observed their actions, which border on the near human.

It is not difficult to understand why admirers would want to pet the dogs, for no reward is too much to bestow upon these two special components of the "Man's Best Friend society."

But it must be pointed out the dogs were taught to respond to one and only one person . . . their respective masters. The reason is self-evident. Ka Leo, acting on a personal request, asks students and faculty to refrain from petting the dogs.

'CHALK UP HIT'

Soci Club's 'Process' Mag Is Acclaimed

By BERT KANBARA

Ka Leo Feature Editor

Chalk up a hit for the Sociology club's 1948 issue of Social Process in Hawaii!

This issue seeks "to give the reader . . . a sense of what it means to belong to one or the other of the various minority groups in Hawaii," in this case, the Japanese. That it has succeeded in this task, there is no doubt.

THE READER IS led into the family circle where he witnesses the activities and changing cultural patterns, particularly in marriage customs and religious traditions, much of which may be new even to kamaainas who have Japanese neighbors.

Five of the seven student contributions concern this aspect of social process. Throughout, one senses the common human experience underlying all in spite of the changes in external form.

EXPERIENCES of the Nisei on occupation duty in the land of their ancestors is interestingly presented in two articles, one by Hideo Uto and another by an anonymous veteran.

The former paper is a subjective account of reactions to experiences in post-war Japan, while the latter is a vivid observational review of occupied Japan, from red-light districts to a fishing village.

THE NEED for racial statistics in Hawaii is pointed out in an enlightening, if somewhat prosaic, article by club adviser Bernhard L. Hormann.

Trends within the much maligned and little understood Puerto Rican community are indicated in "Hawaii's Puerto Ricans" by Dr. Lee M. Brooks, who was a visiting professor of sociology from North Carolina last year. Admittedly only a preliminary survey, the study is expected to be continued further.

THE LONGEST and one of the most interesting articles is that by Dr. Andrew W. Lind on "Some Problems of Veteran Adjustment in Hawaii." It is based on themes submitted by 38 veterans in an introductory sociology class in 1946.

DR. LIND

Analyses by Dr. Lind are followed by copious excerpts from the themes, which are the high points of the article. The frank presentation by the vets of their adjustment problems, impressions gathered on homecoming, and of Mainland and combat experiences should not be missed.

EDITOR TOSHIO KUMABE, his staff and writers are to be congratulated for their noteworthy achievement.

UH Boxing Team Votes To Enter Hawaii Golden Gloves Tournament Needs Final Approval From BAC To Compete

In a meeting held early this week at the gym, the UH boxing team voted in favor of entering the Golden Gloves tournament, which will be held next month.

The final approval, however, has to come from the BAC, which will have to consider technicalities such as the amateur status of the opponents and the expenses involved should UH enter.

THE TOURNAMENT, according to "Red" McQueen, sports editor of The Advertiser, which is sponsoring this annual event, is sanctioned by the local AAU. He also said that all expenses must be assumed by the competing clubs but believed that these costs will be recompensated when the profits are distributed proportionately to the participating clubs.

MR. IWAO MIYAKE, acting athletic director, commented that he had not yet received an offer so he cannot take any action. In answer to this, Mr. McQueen said that no formal offer has been extended to any of the clubs, but should any request it, he will be glad to forward invitations.

He extended, however, an invitation to UH officials to attend a meeting which will be held Sunday at 10 a.m. at the Territorial boxing commissioner's office.

MEANWHILE UH'S simon pures under the capable handling of Don Gustuson and Herbert Minn are going through intensive daily workouts at the boxing gym. Mr. Gustuson spoke highly of the boys and believes that about 15 of them are capable of entering the tourney should they be given the green light.

KEN "CANNONBALL" Kawate was elected to co-captain the team with Teruo "Blackie" Tanonaka. It is still in doubt whether the latter will return to the team, according to Mr. Gustuson.

Other squad members are Sammy Lau, Henry Takeshita, Tom Ajimine, Nobuo Matsuda, Kats Sasaki, and Robert Agena. Yok Chen, visiting student from China, is also turning out.

'Mural Casaba Teams Dwindle

By DICK NAGATA
Ka Leo Staff Reporter

Four more teams survived the rapidly dwindling field of teams in the Intramural novice basketball league, played up to Wednesday noon.

Engrs. 28-Frosh B 23. The Engrs. quintet, led by Fred Yamamoto's 11 points, defeated the strong Frosh B team. Herbert Nakashima with 12 points was the losers' best.

Hicks 28-Frosh H 21. The efforts of two Richards, Goto and Obata who score 6 points apiece were in vain, as Frosh H bowed to the strong Hicks quintet. Hicks were led by Ed Matsumoto and Tamaru Kodama, who split 14 points between them.

Opae Catchers, 31-#1663, 17. It was the case of too much power as the Opae Catchers routed the #1663 outfit. For the winners, Fred Lee and Robert Agena with 8 points apiece were the best. Yancy Carter with 10 points stood out for the losers.

Hubbas 26-Frosh E 19. Sharp-shooting Satoru Amaki shattered Frosh E's defense and collected 10 points, as his team went on to beat Frosh E. Contributing 10 digits, Wilfred Ching was the sparkplug for his team, Frosh E.

Intramural Class Hoopsters To Open Schedule Monday

Basketball will again dominate Intramural activities next week as the Interclass basketball league gets underway at the gym, Monday at 12:30 p.m. Games will also be played Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays.

Schedules for the open and novice games will be out sometime today on the Intramural bulletin board at the Intramural office.

WHETHER THIS tourney will be a single elimination or double elimination will depend upon the number of teams entered.

Cagers who have played in the interscholastic and other leagues like Chinese, and AJA Jr. and Sr., are ineligible to participate in the novice division.

Ing High Man In Rifle Meet Against Alabama

Melvin Ing made top score of 352 out of a possible 400 in a pre-season postal rifle match again the University of Alabama last week.

Positions fired were prone, sitting, kneeling and standing.

Other scores were: Hiroo Tera-mae, 340; William McCracken, 336; Thomas Lalakea, 336; and Frank Kawamoto, 314; making a team total of 1678 points out of a possible 2000.

Preparatory marksmanship instruction for 90 new marksmen began Monday, and they will begin firing December 1.

Transferees Give Reasons For Returning

"What is this—is it racial prejudice that we transfer students can't play in collegiate games?" demanded the burly orator of the habits of the football locker room last week.

Francis O'Sullivan is much happier now for the NCAA has approved participation of transfers in intercollegiate games if the opponents do not object.

LIKE "SULLY," many of the boys returned home to UH for various reasons. "Sully" desired to be with his sick mother.

A graduate of St. Louis college and former blocking tackle for Herman Wedemeyer, "Sully" attended the University of Santa Clara for two years.

FINANCES PROMPTED Chuck Miller, fullback, to remain home instead of beginning his second year at the University of San Francisco. Chuck formerly played football at Roosevelt high and was on the Dons frosh team.

Clarence Philpotts studied and played football at the University of Portland for almost 2 seasons. Bobby Moore, formerly of Kam, is another transfer student on the football team.

ALL EXPRESSED their eagerness to start against any of the Rainbows' Mainland opponents. "After all," Chuck said, "one joins the Varsity to play football."

'Mural Meet To Draw Tag Football Plans

Intramural class managers will meet at the Intramural office, Tuesday, Oct. 26, 12:30 p.m. to discuss plans and schedules for the interclass touch football league which will begin after the first six weeks exams.

In the meantime, managers are asked to contact prospective players. Only one team per class is permitted and 6 men will comprise a team but the number of substitutions that can be used will be unlimited.

FURTHER INFORMATION may be obtained from either Claude Takekawa, student Intramural director, or Joe Okumoto, Intramural football manager.

Cage Girls---

WAA Interclass basketball begins Nov. 9, continuing until Nov. 30. Practices are being held every Tuesday and Thursday at 12:30 p.m. in the gym till Nov. 4.

You Are the Underwriters:

When the ASUH councilmen unanimously voted to underwrite the Bittners' basketball series, they acted on behalf of UH students. This makes all members of the ASUH underwriters of this venture.

Reasons given by the councilmen for their decision were:

(1) Since the Bittners and their opponents are of amateur standing and will receive no direct compensation, their services should not be capitalized upon; which would probably happen should downtown promoters sponsor the series. The councilmen did not want this to happen, especially in view of the fact they received the original offer to sponsor the games.

(2) The possibility of financial loss resulting from this venture, according to the councilmen's estimate, is slight.

The reasons given above are highly commendable and we believe that a large majority of UH students will sanction the council's action.

Although this is not chiefly a money-making project, as was implied in reason (1) above, enough funds to finance this project must be obtained from the paying fans. This will require cooperation from students.

Attendance at these games will help. Encouraging other people to attend through personal contacts and aiding in the selling of tickets are bound to insure financial success.

After all, you students are the underwriters.

Mighty little wind:

Texas Mines, UH's next intercollegiate opponent, is listed second in average rushing offense in a report which covered all the collegiate games so far this season. Their average per game is 348.5 yards.

Their 386 yard average per game puts them in 9th place in the total offense department.

They might be playing against small schools, but their record is impressive.

Track Meet?

In a game against Mick Vets at Cooke field, the UH Frosh eleven racked up a 71-0 win. Jimmy Asato ran 65 and 39 yards for touchdowns, while Hugh Johnson raced 75 and 47 yards to the goal line.

They should have stepped off the turf and played on the cinder path.

Two things every college man should know!

1. This is a philosopher. Spends time trying to prove he doesn't exist. He might as well not, without a "Manhattan" tie.

Leebrick, VVC In Accord On Improvements

Members of the Veterans Village executive committee and Dr. K. C. Leebrick, veterans adviser, reached a compromise on the installation of two water cooling systems in vets housing at a meeting last Monday.

The veterans proposed that they would buy the cooling systems, provided the administration pay the expense for their installation and maintenance.

IN DISCUSSING the housing problem, Dr Leebrick said that the administration was working on the assumption that vets housing will not be torn down, but will remain the property of the university.

Plans by the administration for building improvements include recovering of floors and painting of the interior, Dr. Leebrick stated.

MARIKA PETRICEVICH

"Hawaii certainly is the melting pot of the Pacific," said slender and attractive Miss Marika Petricevich, as she watched the streams of undergraduates moving between classes on campus.

Miss Petricevich is at UH as the recipient of a one year graduate fellowship in social work, which is offered annually by the Hawaiian branch of the American Association of University Women to a deserving woman university graduate in the Pacific area.

OF MAORI-DALMATIAN descent, Marika has been working for the New Zealand government in the department of social and physical welfare of the Maoris since her graduation from Auckland university in 1946.

"I majored in education, and found it very interesting," she commented. "Our education courses are a little different from yours in that they include more sociology courses."

THE STATUESQUE New Zealander, who looks very much haole-Hawaiian, added, "I was very happy to receive this fellowship as it meant I would be able to study all phases of Hawaiian culture, which I feel has a very strong relationship to ours, since we both belong to the Polynesian group."

ONE THING about Hawaii which struck her immediately was, she said in her slightly British accent, "the informal way of dress that the men follow here—no ties and coats. In Auckland, ties and coats are worn at all times."

After completion of her studies here, the charming social worker plans to return to New Zealand and continue her work there.

Aloha Baker 'Shoots' Students For 'Talk' Info

Students unwittingly became movie actors and actresses Monday morning, as they trudged to their 9:30 classes, when professional lecturer Aloha Baker focused her movie camera on the UH populace.

Miss Baker is taking pictures of Island life for future lectures on Hawaii.

The camera was aimed particularly to catch shots of representatives of the various racial groups on campus.

MAJOR EVENT

(Oct. 21, 1942)—Distinguished army, navy and civic leaders will participate in the inauguration of Gregg M. Sinclair as president of the University of Hawaii this afternoon at the Andrews amphitheatre.
